

RECENT PROJECTS

Central Physical Therapy, Scarsdale, NY: Interior renovation of 3,000sf medical facility including general contracting and supervision of all trades. Timely construction management allowed an extremely quick turnaround at this site.

Central Westchester Dermatology, Scarsdale, NY: New interior construction of 3,000sf medical facility including general contracting and supervision of all trades.

Digestive Health Medical Associates, Great Neck, NY: Interior renovation of 2,200sf medical facility including general contracting and supervision of all trades, while managing several subcontractors in order to follow a strict timetable.

ENT and Allergy Associates, Brewster, NY: New interior alteration for this 5,000sf medical office facility including general contracting and construction management.

Montefiore OBGYN, Hartsdale, NY: Interior renovation of 3,400sf medical facility including general contracting and supervision of all trades through a proven formula of success via construction management.

Mt. Sinai Medical Center, Scarsdale, NY: New interior construction of 5,500sf medical facility including general contracting and supervision of all trades including site work and interior design subcontractors

Plancher Hand & Sports Medicine, Rye Brook, NY: New interior construction of 2,800sf medical facility including general contracting and supervision of all trades. Highly skilled subcontractors enabled timely construction and subsequent repeat business.

NYCONN Orthopaedic and Rehabilitation Specialists, Harrison, NY: Total management and general contracting of this 7,000sf free-standing medical building, including interior development and exterior site work. Our prior experience and proven performance pushed construction through in an extremely quick fashion

Plancher Orthopedic Associates, Stamford, CT: Total interior renovation for this medical facility including general contracting and the fusion of all work and trades.

